

MADE TO GIVE LIFE

IntentionalByGrace.com

Wise Woman

- A wise woman devotes herself to the study of God's Word.
- A wise woman longs for the real transformation that comes from knowing God intimately.
- A wise woman surrounds herself with others walking in wisdom so that she may learn from them.
- A wise woman allows the Lord to be the strongest influence in her life.
- A wise woman cultivates a heart of worship.
- A wise woman uses her words to build up, not tear down.
- A wise woman refuses to fall into the snare of compare, and instead lets her eyes be directly forward, pondering the path of HER feet.
- A wise woman honors and esteems men as fellow heirs with Christ.
- A wise woman is kind, tender-hearted, and forgiving.
- A wise woman counts others as more significant than herself.
- A wise woman is resourceful and alert to the cries of the needy and oppressed.
- A wise woman laughs at the time to come.
- A wise woman rests confidently in the sufficiency of the gospel.
- A wise woman knows she was made to give life and seeks to do so in every season.

Weak Woman

- A weak woman rarely opens God's word and is unteachable.
- A weak woman is lazy and lukewarm in her faith.
- A weak woman surrounds herself with others who are just like her, or goes it alone because she doesn't think she needs help.
- A weak woman lives as though there is no God.
- A weak woman gets caught up in the affairs and worries of everyday life.
- A weak woman gossips and complains.
- A weak woman compares herself and her circumstances to other women - envying, coveting, and feeling sorry for herself.
- A weak woman looks down her nose at men, viewing them as incapable and ignorant.
- A weak woman holds grudges and allows bitterness to take root in her heart.
- A weak woman fights for her rights at all cost.
- A weak woman is lazy and apathetic toward the poor and needy.
- A weak woman worries and frets about what tomorrow will bring.
- A weak woman is burdened by her sins, weighed down in guilt and shame.
- A weak woman cares only for herself and is content to seek her own pleasure and fulfillment.

How were you made to give life?

If you are ready to start making intentional, deliberate choices to breathe life back into your home, your church, and your community every single week, then the Made to Give Life Planner might be the tool you need.

It's not just a planner.

It's a way of life.

LEARN MORE

